The vampire diaries cast season 2 episode 5

Author 1 Credit Creator 1 Credit Co-Producer 1 Credit Co-Executive Producer 1 Credit Editor 2 Credits Costumes 1 Credit previous next Memory Lane Plan B Kill or Be Killed is the fifth episode of the second season of The Vampire Diaries and the twenty-seventh episode of the series overall. Summary MASON'S PAST IS REVEALED — Tyler learns more about the Lockwood family curse from Mason. Stefan and Damon argue over how to handle Mason. Elena tries to keep Jeremy from becoming more involved with the Lockwood mystery, but Jeremy makes an effort to hang out with Tyler and Mason gives Sheriff Forbes some startling information, leading to a night of violence, confessions and heartbreak. Plot In this episode, the short flashback is taking place one year ago, showing how Mason accidentally killed his friend Jimmy in a fight. Mason tells Tyler the story. It is Mystic Falls Historical Society Volunteer Day. Stefan tries to make peace with Mason. Despite a somewhat reconcilable conversation, it is obvious that Mason is still out for Damon. Mason tells Sheriff Forbes that Stefan and Damon are vampires. Mason tells Sheriff Forbes that Damon and Stefan are vampires, but she doesn't believe it. Stefan and Elena continue to make everyone think that they are in a fight. Caroline believes this, but Damon does not. Damon drinks some lemonade and topples over, because Mason spiked it with vervain. Sheriff Forbes watches everything go down and calls for backup. As she leaves, Caroline confronts her. Caroline sees how distressed her mom is and becomes curious, so she decides to eavesdrop on her mother's surroundings. Stefan and Damon corner Mason in the woods. Just when they were about to kill him, they get shot by wooden bullets. Liz and her deputies run over and inject them with vervain and take them into the cellar. Caroline hears all this and runs to tell Elena. They arrive and stop deputies from staking Stefan and Damon. Damon drinks their blood, but Stefan refuses. Liz sees all this go down. Caroline pleads with her to keep this a secret. Liz does not accept her daughter being a vampire. Damon gets close to killing Liz, and then decides to keep her in the cellar until all the vervain leaves her system, so she can be compelled to forget about everything. On Caroline's way out, she overhears Liz say that Caroline is not her daughter anymore. Elena thanks Damon for not killing Liz. Damon tells Elena that Stefan didn't feed on the blood. Mason and Katherine kissing Elena cuts her hand and offers her blood to Stefan. He feeds on her a little. Jeremy and Tyler were hanging out with Sarah and Aimee at the Lockwood Mansion. Sarah asked to see Jeremy's sketches. They were all pictures of wolves. Tyler takes Jeremy aside and confronts him. Jeremy admits he knows about the Lockwood secret, then he spills everything he knows about Mason, the moonstone and the curse. Then Sarah jokingly took it. Tyler is furious and pushes her accidentally down the stairs and wrestles the stone back. Tyler is shaken up by his actions and later tells Mason what happened and hands over the moonstone. Mason gets into a car that Katherine is driving. It turns out that he works for her. He hands her the moonstone and they share a kiss. He thinks that Katherine loves him, not knowing about her history with Damon and Stefan. Cast Trivia Antagonist: Mason Lockwood. Elizabeth Forbes learns that Caroline, Damon and Stefan are vampires in this episode. Mason meets Elena and Caroline in this episode. Caroline kills two deputies in this episode; she fed on one to protect Stefan and Damon, and used another as a human shield to prevent herself from being shot. After finding out that Caroline, Damon, and Stefan are vampires, Liz is locked up in the cellar of the Salvatore Boarding House until the vervain is out of her system so she can be compelled to forget that she knew what they are. Stefan decides to start drinking small amounts of human blood to build up his tolerance so he will no longer have to worry about dying from being injured because he's too weak from drinking animal blood to heal, like he was in this episode. Elena supports his decision, but encourages him to drink her blood instead of blood bags so she can help him through it. Tyler, who just learned about his werewolf heritage in the previous episode, nearly triggered his werewolf curse when he accidentally pushed Sarah down the stairs when he was trying to wrestle the moonstone out of her hands. Fortunately, she was fine, and only had the wind knocked out of her. This scene ended up foreshadowing the events of Masquerade, when Tyler ultimately triggered his werewolf curse by accidentally pushing Sarah (who was compelled by Katherine to fight Tyler until he killed her) off of him and into a desk, where she hit her head and died. Tyler admitted to Jeremy that lycanthropy runs in the Lockwood family, and that though his uncle Mason is a werewolf, he won't be unless he accidentally or intentionally takes a human life. Caroline confessed to Elena that Katherine has been forcing her to spy on her and to interfere with her relationship with Stefan, and Elena admitted that she has known the entire time. Locations Continuity Body Count Sheriff Jess - Shot to death; indirectly killed by Caroline Forbes to protect her from being shot by Sheriff #2 Sheriff #2 - Exsanguinated; killed by Damon Salvatore Cultural References "Give Peace a Chance" is a 1969 single written by John Lennon that became an anthem of the American anti-war movement of the 1960s. The Bionic Woman: the way that Caroline moves her hair, and the camera focus on her ear is just the way Jaime Sommers used to focus her hearing. Killed or Be Killed is a 1977 South African martial arts movie, retitled and released in 1980 in the United States. Behind the Scenes This episode had about 3.50 million viewers in USA, which was 0.3 million more than the previous episode. Quotes Damon: "What are you doing?" Stefan: "Negotiating peace on your behalf." Damon (complains): "But I don't want peace!" Stefan: "Huh. Consider it opposite day." Damon: "Stefan, please tell me you don't seriously think a handshake just solved our problem." Stefan: "No, actually, I think that the first chance Mason Lockwood gets, he's gonna drive a stake through your heart, and then through mine. All because you took it upon yourself to try and kill him. So thank you, 'cause we don't have enough problems." Damon (to Elena): "Hey... Stefan didn't drink the people blood. But he needs to. And deep down, you know that." Elena (to Stefan): "It's you and me, Stefan. Always." Stefan: "Okay how about this? Today, when we're fighting, if I say 'I can't do this anymore, Elena,' what I really mean is that I love you." Elena: "And when I say 'Fine, Stefan. Whatever,' that'll mean that I love you, too." Show all Cast & Crew The Vampire Diaries Season 2 Episode 5 Synopsis, Pictures & Soundtrack Flashing back a year ago in Emerald Coast Florida, Mason sits at a bar minding his own business and preparing to leave. His friend Jimmy begins to accuse him of sleeping with his girlfriend. Mason denies it and heads out. Jimmy unfortunately will not let the argument rest. He keeps at Mason outside until a fight breaks out. Mason tries not to fight but Jimmy keeps coming at him. Before you know it, a serious fight breaks out and Jimmy is knocked to the ground. The fall to the hard cement results in Jimmy's death. This of course triggers the Lockwood curse. After listening to Mason's story about how the curse was triggered for him, Tyler tries to appear that he is on Mason's side and will help him find the moonstone. He brings Mason over to where his father's floor safe is and opens it up. Mason searches inside but comes up empty handed. Tyler apologizes and tells Mason that he thought it might be in there. At the Gilbert house, Elena tries to convince Jeremy to leave Tyler alone about the Lockwood curse. Of course, Jeremy has no intention of doing that and he heads out. Once alone, Elena turns around to see Stefan standing there. Closing the door to give them privacy, the two begin to kiss. Elena tells him that she hates to pretend that they are fighting. They both decide to have a secret phrase during the fights that means "I love you". Sheriff Liz Forbes shocks her daughter when Caroline sees her out of her uniform. Liz informs her daughter that today she is off duty and will be helping Caroline at the Historical Society Volunteer Day. Caroline is not sure if she believes that her mother will actually spend the whole day with her. At the picnic, Stefan approaches Mason and does his best to try and make a truce. At first Mason is resistant and tries to walk away. Stefan stops him and warns Mason that he is not as strong as he and Damon. Finally, Mason appears to agree with the truce and walks away. At the Mystic Grill, Jeremy tries to start up a conversation with Tyler. At first, Tyler blows him off and then finally starts to talk with him. Tyler thanks Jeremy for being at his father's wake. Tyler invites Tyler back to his house for drinks with Aimee and Sarah. Mason tries to talk to Liz about joining the council. Liz tells him no and that it isn't any of his concern. Mason soon tells Liz that he knows there is 2 Vampires right under her nose. Looking at where he is, Liz sees Damon and Stefan. Not believing him, Liz tells Mason there is no way and that Damon has helped them out so much. Mason tells her that he will prove it to her and walks away. Later, Damon tries to talk to Liz and see what he can do to help. Immediately, Damon notices that she seemed preoccupied. Trying to cover up her nervousness, Liz tells Damon that she is just upset that her and Caroline were fighting. Painting a post with Elena, Caroline notices the looks Elena was sending Stefan's way. Caroline tries to convince Elena to just leave him alone but Elena walks towards Stefan anyways. Elena and Stefan begin to have a heated argument, knowing that Damon and Caroline are listening to their every word. Before walking away, Elena and Stefan exchange their secret phrase so they both would feel better. Back at Tyler's house, the group enjoy a few cocktails and soon the girls are dancing. Aimee walks over to Tyler and takes the time to apologize to Tyler about her behavior at the party the other night. Sarah, who has a crush on Jeremy grabs his sketch pad from his back pack. She begins to look at the drawings and Jeremy sees Tyler getting upset because the drawings are all of a werewolf. Tyler takes Jeremy into the study and grabs his collar and shoves him against a wall. Tyler questions him about why he would draw the wolves. Jeremy informs him that he is aware of the curse. Tyler lets him go. At the picnic, Damon approaches Mason at the lemonade table and in his own way is nice. Mason walks off and Stefan joins Damon to make sure he wasn't starting anything. Assuring him that it wasn't the case, Damon reaches for a glass of lemonade. After a big drink, Damon reacts violently and begins to gag. There was verberna in the lemonade. Stefan tries to help Damon and they both have no idea that Liz was watching the whole thing. Seeing Elena sitting alone by the water, Caroline joins her to try and help. Caroline tells Elena that maybe it's for the best. Elena doesn't want to hear what Caroline has to say. Caroline tries to convince her that maybe she and Stefan should break up, knowing that Katherine is a very dangerous Vampire. Caroline notices her mother preparing to leave and tries to listen in on her cell phone conversation. Once again, she sees that her mother is choosing her work over spending time with her daughter. Liz walks away but Caroline senses that something is seriously wrong. Damon tries hard to rid his mouth of the verberna. He is furious and wants to find Mason and kill him. For once, Stefan is on his side in this. The two see Mason heading off into the woods and they follow him. Elena follows Caroline into the woods too since she realizes that Caroline is concerned and senses trouble. Caroline stops and pushes her hair away from her and tries to listen in on what is going on around them. Finally hearing something, Caroline tells Elena that Damon and Stefan are in trouble. Up in the woods, Stefan and Damon confront Mason. Damon tells him that he should know this was inevitable. Telling Mason that he can have a head start, they are surprised when Mason doesn't run but instead ducks. Suddenly bullets are fired and Damon and Stefan fall to the ground. Liz approaches and injects them both with a needle full of verberna. Tyler and Jeremy talk about the curse and Tyler explains to Jeremy that someone must die by his hands in order to trigger the curse. Tyler explains to Jeremy that his Uncle Mason has been asking about a moonstone that his dad had. Telling Jeremy that apparently it has super natural powers, Jeremy pulls out the moonstone and shows it to Tyler. Mason helps Liz bring Damon and Stefan's prone bodies down to the old slave quarters. Once inside, Mason makes sure that Liz intends to kill them when she's done. She says yes and tells him to leave. Liz doesn't want him involved in anything else. Mason leaves. Mason finds Elena and Caroline in the woods and questions them about why they are there. Elena asks him what's going on and he tells her to get her friend to get her friend to sniff them out. Angering Caroline further by asking her if her mother knows what she is? Caroline proceeds closer and Mason grabs Elena by the neck. Caroline tells him that she can take him and soon enough, she proves it. In a few seconds, Caroline attacks Mason and he falls to the ground unconscious. Down in the old slave quarters, Liz begins to question Damon. Seeing that he is not cooperating, she fires a few shots into him and into Stefan. Damon tries to tell her that they are friends but Liz will listen to none of that now. She tells him that she can drag this out painfully unless he cooperates. At the entrance, Caroline hears her mother say to the deputies to kill Damon and Stefan. Elena tries to rush on down but Caroline tries to stop her. She tells Elena that she is afraid for her mother to see what she has become. Elena rushes down anyways. Elena barges in and tells Liz that she won't let her kill them. A moment later, they all sense that they are not alone. Caroline rushes around attacks the deputies. Once it is over, Liz looks upon Caroline's bloodied face and is horrified. Damon feeds off of the dead deputies and tries to convince Stefan to drink to heal himself. Stefan refuses. Caroline tries to talk to her mother but she ignores her and begs Damon to just kill her. Tyler and Jeremy get an unwanted visit from Aimee and Sarah. The two see the moonstone and snatch it up. They begin to play keep away which frustrates Tyler. Sarah has the moonstone and heads upstairs. She tells Jeremy to come and get it from her but he says no. Tyler heads up instead and a struggle follows. Suddenly, Sarah loses her footing and falls backwards down the stairs. Tyler rushes down and they all think she's dead. A moment later, Sarah opens her eyes and smiles. She was just teasing them but that doesn't make Tyler feel any better. Caroline stops by Damon and Stefan's house to bring her mother a suitcase with clothes. Damon does not want to kill Liz. They will keep her locked up until all the verberna is out of her system. Once that's done, Damon will compel her into never knowing about what happened or that Damon, Stefan and Caroline are Vampires. Not knowing that Caroline is listening in, Liz tells Damon to keep Caroline away from her and that she does not want to see her. Damon tells her that she's her daughter but Liz answers back that her daughter is gone. Damon looks up at Caroline and she walks away. Seeing the freezer of blood bags, Stefan takes one out. Elena sees and asks him what he is doing. Stefan tries to explain to Elena that he needs a small amount of human blood a day to build up his strength. It will be the only way he can deal with Katherine. Elena doesn't believe him and she walks away. Seeing Caroline sitting on the couch, Elena tries to console her and asks if she could drive her home. Caroline confesses that she is too scared to go home. She's afraid that Katherine will come. Caroline finally confesses to Elena about her spying for Katherine and Elena tells her she knew all about it. Asking who she threatened to get her to do this, Caroline tells her that Katherine threatened to kill Matt. Tyler sees Mason in the study and after what happened earlier, he decides to turn over the moonstone. He explains to Mason about what had happened earlier and the close call he had. He tells him that for a split second, he wished the girl was dead so the curse would be triggered. Now he explains that he never wants to feel that way again. He hands over the moonstone to Mason and walks away. Getting ready to leave, Elena sees Damon. Elena tells Damon that what he did for Caroline's mother, instead of killing her is the Damon that was her friend. Feeling relieved, Damon informs her that Stefan did not drink the human blood. He also tells her that Stefan needs too and she knows it. Elena finds Stefan sitting alone and asks him if he thinks he can control it this time. Stefan tells her that he's not sure but he has to try. Trusting him, Elena cuts her hand and offers up her own blood to help him. Stefan begins to drink. In a darkened area, Mason approaches a vehicle waiting for him. It's Katherine and she questions him if he finally got the moonstone or not. He hands it over and she is quite pleased. The two begin to kiss though she is irritated that he tried to hurt Damon and Stefan. Flashing back, we see that it was Katherine who planted the story in Jimmy's head that Mason was sleeping with his girlfriend. Knowing what the outcome would be and also knowing that the curse would be triggered, Katherine steps out of the crowd and rushes to console Mason.
